

I am making a reference to Mr. Thippanuri Sai Aravind Reddy with sincere excitement. He was a brilliant associate who I got to know well. During the 1.5 years of interaction with him, I can evaluate both professionally and personally. He is one of the few associate, who got my complete attention by his skills and efforts.

Mr. Thippanuri Sai Aravind Reddy has been exceedingly hopeful and enthusiastic about learning new things throughout his term at the company. He impressed me as essentially solid and sincere in his attempts. He is a diligent associate with a strong sense of self-assurance. His vast knowledge and eagerness to learn new technology never failed to surprise me.

He can finish his tasks with minimum supervision and never hesitates to seek assistance when necessary to reach his goals. He is extremely flexible, and I have seen him obtain new topics outside of work hours to add new elements to issue resolution.

His collaborative attitude and deep desire to bring something new to the table will make him an asset on any research team. I really believe that Aravind will bring your class and the university as a whole his special brand of enthusiasm, optimism, passion, and endless creativity. I thus give him my strongest recommendation for admission to the course he wants to take at your university. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with me if you have any queries concerning this advice; I will be happy to try and assist.

Thanks,
